If the Appointed Agent[s] represents both the Seller/Landlord and Buyer/Tenant, the duties of the Appointed Agent[s] are set forth in the Dual Agency Consent Forms executed by each client and those forms are incorporated herein as if fully set forth.

If the Appointed Agent[s] represents either the Seller/Landlord or Buyer/Tenant, but not both, the Appointed Agent has the following duties to its client:

a) Place the client’s interests ahead of the interests of any other party unless loyalty to a client violates a duty as a disclosed dual agent or other applicable law.

c) Fulfill any obligations within the scope of the brokerage agreement, except those obligations which are inconsistent with other duties the Appointed Agent[s] has under law.

The following duties apply to all parties:

a) To provide brokerage services to all parties in the transaction honestly and in good faith.
b) To diligently exercise reasonable skill and care in providing brokerage services to all parties.
c) To disclose to each party all material adverse facts that we know, except for the following:

   [2] Material adverse facts a party could discover through a reasonably diligent inspection and which would be discovered by a reasonably prudent person under like or similar circumstances.
   [3] Material adverse facts the disclosure of which is prohibited by law.
   [4] Material adverse facts that are known to a person who conducts an inspection on behalf of a party.
d) To account for all property coming into the possession of the Broker or the Appointed Agent[s] that belongs to any party within a reasonable time after receiving the property.
